7:30-9 pm

Film historian, Philip Harwood explores the social criteria and outcomes of a group of people interacting with each other in their neighborhood, (original episode of the Twilight Zone), and in a haunted house. Time and time again, in such films as The Old Dark House (1932), House on Haunted Hill (1958), The Haunting (1963), the Legend of Hell House (1973), and the Changeling the spirits who inhabit these old dark houses, have their own agenda for the guests who stay over at night.

Sunday, November 1st

1 – 2:45 pm

Join animator Jacob Ospa, and writer/producers, June Rachelson-Ospa and Daniel Neiden on the journey to Tourettaville, a musical based on the challenges facing Jon Ospa, a young boy diagnosed with Tourette Syndrome when he was five years old. The musical play was written to help Jon with the struggles he faced, not feeling as if he fit in with both family and friends. The musical won the Very Special Arts Award and was presented at the Kennedy Center in 2000. Jon's brother, Jacob, is animating a short film based on the musical.

We will screen the musical and the animated work in progress, entitled ONE OF A KIND YOU, and recorded by Grammy Winner, Dr. John. We will also screen Jacob's DUSTY-nominated animated film, TO THE MOON.
