

Gathering Time: Folk-2-Funk Festival, Fri. Feb. 10th
at 7:30pm <http://www.gatheringtimetrio.com/>

With a stylistic breadth ranging from the dyed-in-the-wool folk sound of Peter, Paul & Mary to the folk-rock harmonic complexity of Crosby, Stills & Nash, Gathering Time is a trio that's "getting a whole beehive-full of buzz" on the Long Island and national folk scene right now.

Undeniably, their original songs reveal the influences of The Byrds, Simon & Garfunkel, Joni Mitchell, The Eagles and many more harmonizing favorites from the golden era of '60s folk-rock and the melodic magic of '70s acoustic rock - and they've been known to delight audiences when they sprinkle in some of their original songs.

Miraculous three-part vocal blends uplifted by fine, note-perfect acoustic, electric and bass guitar - all this plus light, precise percussion...just the right amount...create the wall of sound and wave of memories we now know as Gathering Time.

Christine Sweeney: Folk-2-Funk Festival,
Sat. Feb. 11th at 7:30pm

Singer/Songwriter, Christine Sweeney, got her start young, performing at high school variety shows and open mikes. Now you can find her performing at clubs, restaurants and listening rooms all over Long Island and in New York City.

Her music has been described as "sultry," and she continues to write new material while making plans for future recordings and showcases.

http://www.christinesweeney.com/Christine_Sweeney/About.html